AADC Board of Directors Nomination Form

Directions: Use this form to nominate an alumna to an open board position. Nominations for board officers are due by November 7, 2024, and nominations for general members are due by January 9, 2025.

Brief Descriptions of Open Board Positions for the July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2027 term (deadline Nov. 7, 2024):

VP for Development: Serves as officer responsible for ensuring the creation and implementation of a development program, including annual fund raising and other development activities, in accordance with the objectives and plans of the Board of Directors. The Vice President for Development shall work closely with the Director of Development and the AADC Annual Appeal Chair.

VP for Alumnae Relations: Responsible for ensuring the development and implementation of programs, services, networks and lifetime learning opportunities that represent the interests and needs of our diverse alumnae, in accordance with the objectives and plans of the Board of Directors. The Department for Alumnae Relations is also responsible for cultivating alumnae volunteers and alumnae groups and networks that support the Association's mission.

VP for Marketing and Communications: Oversees a marketing/communications program, in accordance with the objectives and plans of the Board of Directors, that describes and promotes the mission of the Association to Douglass alumnae and other interested parties and keeps alumnae informed of AADC activities, programs and events. This program includes but is not limited to Association publications, websites, social media vehicles and promotional and other public relations materials.

Secretary: The Secretary shall be responsible for recording the minutes of the Association's meetings and ensuring their accuracy. These meetings include those of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and the Alumnae Council. She shall oversee the orderly retention and maintenance of the records of the Association including the aforementioned minutes and related Board resolutions, and the Association's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Policies and Procedures.

6 General Members (deadline Jan. 9, 2025): Are familiar with the AADC's mission, governance structures, strategy and objectives, and specific programs and activities. Understand the organization's finances and operations, and how they are presented in financial/operations reports. Contribute actively to discussions and decisions based on her personal background and experiences, her overall knowledge of the organization, and the facts and circumstances, and risks and opportunities, presented by the specific issue. Vote on or give guidance on decisions or actions after asking questions and listening to other points of view, and with the best interest of the AADC in mind.
